Parkersburg, W. Va. Jan. 26, '95.
THE WRIGHT MED. CO.,
Columbus, Ohio.

Gentlemen—I have been using Wright's Colery Capsules since Nov., 1894, and find them to be as recommended. I first began taking them while at Hot Springs, Ark., under treatment for Sciatic Rheumatism. Liver, stomach trouble and constipation with which I had been a long sufferer. I found the Colery Capsules gave me great relief from the beginning and have used them ever since. With pleasure, and unhesitatingly, I recommend to them to any and all suffering with like afflictions or either of them.

Very truly yours,

Prof. C. H. Desiré, representing the American Book Company, was in our city this week. The books from this company are to be used in all the schools of this county, and in fact all of the counties of the State, and it does seem right and proper, and we have no doubt but that the Board will readopt the same series of books that are now in use—children and nearly always poor children, removing from one county to another find the same series of books being used in the school, and that awful and unnecessary expense is thus avoided, and this is a great saving to the poorer classes.

RECEIVER.

GEO. W. BAIRD APPOINTED RECEIVER

Of the Mt. Sterling Gas and Electric Light Company.

AN EXCELLENT APPOINTMENT.

The bank of Cedarville, O., Saturday through its attorney, Judge E. C. O'Rear, filed suit in the United States Court at Louisville for a receiver for the Mt. Sterling Water Works and Mt. Sterling Gas and Electric Light Company. The petition was granted and G. W. Baird, of this city, was appointed receiver. The bank is trustee of a mortgage given May 15, 1895, to secure a loan of $50,000, which loan, it is claimed, though overdue, has not been paid.

Mr. Baird is an active, intelligent business man, who will look after all interests most carefully. A better appointment it would have been hard to make. Mr. Baird is also receiver for the Indian Creek Coal and Lumber Company, and will be kept busy

TRAGEDY IN A HOTEL.

Railroad Auditor Kills His Assistant At Jacksonville, Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla., July 19.—In a moment of passion caused by a dispute over a game of cards, W. W. Haralson, Auditor of the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West railroad, dealt a death-blow to Francis M. Ector, Assistant Auditor of the same road. The tragedy occurred last night in the reading-room of the Arlington Hotel, where the two men boarded. Ector and Haralson were warm friends, and nearly every evening played cards in the reading-room of their hotel. Last night they were playing cribbage, when a difference

A DISPUTE OVER TOLL.

Results in the Killing of Jasper Black by J. W. Parris Near Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., July 16.—J. W. Parris, a young married man who keeps a toll-gate on the Athens and Chilburg pike, shot and killed Jasper Black just before sundown yesterday. Black was a young farmer in the neighborhood, and he and a companion had passed through the gate in a spring wagon just before the shooting. They got into a dispute with Parris about the toll, and some hot words followed. The two men finally drove on after Black had paid the toll. They had gone about 100 yards, when Black told his companion

AT CHURCH.

William Board Shot to Death by J. W. Bugg.

Hanrodsburg, Ky., July 19.—At Benton Baptist church, seven miles west of Hanrodsburg, where a protracted meeting was in progress, J. W. Board was assassinated last night just as the people were gathering at the church door by J. W. Bugg, who came up behind him and fired three balls into his body in rapid succession. One bullet entered the spine, one the left kidney and the third took effect in the heart. Either of the shots would have proven fatal.

Board, when shot, fell to the ground but partially rose, fired one shot at Bugg, threw his pistol at him and exclaimed: "Bugg, that's my only load; you can kill me now," and fell to the ground a corpse. The murder was witnessed by a dozen friends of the parties, none of whom could interfere, so quickly was the shooting done. The congregation scattered, women and children screaming as they ran to their vehicles and disappeared while Bugg calmly reloaded his revolver and walked away to the house of a friend, where Sheriff James found and arrested him at 1 o'clock this morning and brought him to jail.

An inquest was held, the evidence before the Coroner tending to establish the fact of an intimacy existing between Board and Bugg's wife. One witness stated that Bugg had recently charged Board with criminal intimacy with Mrs. Bugg and that Board had admitted it. Another witness stated that it was common rumor that Bugg had been offered a bribe of $500 to kill Board. Bugg refuses to talk to reporters.

Board and Bugg were neighboring farmers, each about thirty years old. Board left a widow and six small children. Bugg has a wife and one child.

A Monster Barbecue.

There was much talk among some of the stalwart silver men here yesterday looking to plans for a grand rally and barbecue in the interest of the Democratic ticket at some convenient point in this section at some date to be decided upon in the future. There is every probability that the movement set on foot will develop into a perfected arrangement for the proposed meeting.

Speakers of National reputation will be secured and everything done to make the meeting a notable one. Wherever the matter was broached it met with the hearty approval of all who heard it. Pledges of money and provisions were freely offered. The Democrats in this section are in earnest and determined to roll up unheard-of majorities in this and surrounding counties.

Sharpsburg Fair.

Everything ready. Big crowd expected and ample accommodations for everybody. Outlook brightening for good exhibition. Tents and refreshment will be fine. This is one of the best fairs in the State, and a great crowd is expected to be in attendance from this county.

handling these and other varied interests placed in his keeping.

We are informed that the Gas and Electric Light Company is paying quite well. The private consumers more than paid the running expenses of the plant, and the money paid by the city for street lighting has paid the interest and made a slight reduction on the debt.

Under Mr. Baird's management the property will not do more than it has done heretofore in the way of making money. Mr. Baird has done all the way, but the unsettled state of financial matters has conspired to defeat all his efforts in this line.

Cure For Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of headache, Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence.

We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1 at W. S. Lloyd's drugstore.

arose over some point. Ector, I anger, scattered the cards over the door. "Let me explain," said Haralson. "I don't want to hear a word from you," replied Ector. "The man who would hear an explanation is a d—d fool," exclaimed Haralson. Ector sprang at Haralson, grasping him by the throat. Haralson struck his opponent in the face, but Ector came again, and as he did so, Haralson struck him over the head with a heavy chair. Ector fell unconscious, and in spite of the physicians died at 5 o'clock this morning.

Ector was a native of Atlanta, Ga., and well known in railroad circles, having been Auditor of the Richmond and Danville road for a long time. He owned property in Atlanta worth $100,000. Haralson is a son of Chief Justice Haralson, of Alabama. Haralson's grief is pitiable, and his friends are watching him closely. It is said he will not be prosecuted.

that he intended to go back and whip Parris. He went back to the porch of the toll house, when Parris heard him and came out. Black asked him why he had called him a bad name. Parris denied having used the language attributed to him, when Black called him a liar and told him he intended to kill him at the same instant putting his hand in his pocket. Parris ran into the house, got an old-fashioned revolver and returned to the porch. The revolver is so badly out of fix that Parris had to hold the cylinder in place while trying to shoot.

His wife tried to prevent him from killing Black by throwing her arms around him and phoning his arms to his side. He got away and holding the pistol over his wife's shoulder, fired. The ball entered Black's left side, and he died in fifteen minutes. Parris then left home and went to Winchester, where the authorities arrested him at an early hour this morning and brought him to the Lexington jail.

WOOL FROM MARY'S LITTLE LAMB.

Made Into Yarn That Seventy-Five Years
Later Sold For $8000 on Ounce.

I have got some yarn that was made from the fleece of the original 'Mary's little lamb,' said the wife of a well known Orange county lawyer. "There are only four strands of it, and each one is only a few inches in length, and it cost 50 cents a strand. There is no doubt about its being the genuine wool of that immortal creature. I was in Boston a few years ago at the time the ladies of that city were raising funds to purchase the Old South church, which was threatened with destruction by the march of modern improvement. Among other devices was a fair called Aunt Tabitha's knitting bee, the attraction of which was a number of venerable dames who spun yarn on ancient spinning wheels, just as they and their mothers had spun it from the wool in the early days. Some Boston lady heard that Mary, the heroine of the little lamb rhyme, was living at Sterling, Mass., in the person of octogenarian Mrs. Tyler, a widow. This lady went to Sterling and not only found that Mrs. Tyler was really the original of the poem, but induced her to come to Boston and spend a day at the knitting bee. She was a delightful old lady and told the story of her little lamb.

"When she was but a few years old, her name being Mary Sawyer, among the lambs born on her father's farm one night was one which was such a weakling that Farmer Sawyer said that it could not possibly live. The child Mary felt sympathy for the helpless lambkin that she begged her father to let her take it and try to nurse it into strength. He told her to take it. She carried it to the house, and all the rest of the day and all the following night treated it with such gentle care that next morning it was much improved, and Farmer Sawyer rejoiced Mary by telling her that it would live and grow strong. Such proved to be the case, and as it grew the lamb's affection for Mary was so great that it was miserable when separated from her."

"The stanza which says
"It followed her to school one day,
It made the children laugh and play,
To see a lamb at school."

records a fact, Mrs. Tyler said. The occurrence led a youth who attended the school to put the story of Mary and her little lamb into verse. The poet's name is lost. The lamb grew up and had lambs of its own, but the fondness of the lamb for Mary and of Mary for the lamb never grew less. One day it was following Mary, who had gone to the pasture after the cows, the lamb was attacked by a vicious cow, which gored it with her horns and threw it into the air. It fell at Mary's feet and died. Mary's grief was deep and long lasting.

"The fleece was removed from her in fact by the body, and she spun with her own hands into yarn, a quantity of which she kept ever after among her treasures. She was willing to part with some of it to aid in raising the fund for preserving the Old South church, and brought with her to Boston perhaps a quarter of an ounce. After she told the story of Mary and her little lamb her yarn was in such demand that it was cut up into lengths sufficient to net $75 by the sale. I bought four little pieces of it at 50 cents a piece, and that is how I happen to have some of the wool of Mary's little lamb."—New York Sun.

The Reading Mania.
"They talk about the drink habit, the tobacco habit and the morphine habit," said Dr. E. C. Briggs of Pittsburg, "but the worst habit to which man can become addicted I have never seen mentioned in print. I refer to the reading habit."

"Reading is at once a source of recreation and profit when properly regulated, but when it becomes a confirmed habit it wrecks a man mentally and physically, rendering him entirely useless to himself or the world."

"Every librarian knows the class to whom I refer. Those with the reading habit read every minute, their brain becomes incapable of realizing the actual affairs of earth, and they no more understand the world than though they had never seen one."

"They are, of course, possessed of inexhaustible information, and a person to talk to one casually would suppose him to be a great man, when, as a matter of fact, he is no more fitted to take part in the affairs of the world than is a child in the middle. There is no more sensible object on earth than the man afflicted with the reading mania."—Washington Star.

IN A JUNGLE STORM.

Where the Rain Comes Down Like Bells
Let Not All Be Darkness.

People who have never been in a jungle talk of the sky as a painter talks of the horizon or a seafaring man of the offing—as if when you wanted to see it you only need use your eyes. But in the jungle you don't see the sky—at least you only see a few scraggy patches of it overhead through the openings in the twigs and leaves. Neither do you feel the wind blowing, nor get burned and dazzled by the sun, nor even see that luminary, except by momentary glimpses about midday, from which it follows that a jungleman does not usually pretend to be weatherwise. If he does, he is even a greater humbug than the rest of the weather prophets. On the afternoon about which we are speaking I remember setting forth on my way to the still glow of the tropical calm and wondering rather at the intense stillness of the surrounding forest. Then the air grew cooler and the green of the foliage in front seemed to deepen, and presently there was a sound as of a giant waterfall in the distance. Waterfalls do not, however, grow louder every second, whereas the noise in front did so. Then there was a loud, angry growl as of a dozen lions. A minute more and the whole jungle began to roar as if 50 squadrons of heavy cavalry were coming up at a gallop. Then came a drop of rain and a peal of thunder which seemed to make the world stop.

Then the storm began. The sky above darkened; the trees clattered; the brushwood beneath hissed and bowed itself. A deluge of raindrops blotted out the narrow vista. Down it came, soaking through the densest leaves under which one fled for refuge, striking the grass and sand with millions of dull thuds, dashing furiously against the leaves as if they were so many hostile shields, streaking the air with innumerable perpendicular lines and hurling itself down with the force of bullets. In such a downpour one may as well walk and not wet as stand and get wet. Unfortunately one did not know where to walk. The "circumbendibus system" presupposes the fact that the wagon wheels and bullock tracks can be seen and noted, but when the cart track is no longer a cart track, but "all turned to rushing waters," such tracks cannot be seen, and unless you have a pocket compass you may as well try to fly as to get back to where you came from. When one reads of travelers lost in the backwoods, they always steer by the sun and probably very badly, but when there is no sun what then you do?—Current Literature.

Presidents For This Nation.

The objection raised by a faction of the American press against the frequency of marriages between Yankee "millionaires" and British and other European "panpers" has been answered by the marriage of that in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries it was the custom for American gentlemen, descendants of those old English families who had possessed the Massachusetts and Caroline plantations and settled in the States, to come to England in search of wives.

Occasionally, too, the American girl found her husband in the old country. Thus in 1844 the lovely Misses Carroll of Carrollton, Baltimore, made their debut in London society and took the town by storm. They did more; they carried off the best prizes in the matrimonial market of the period by becoming respectively Duchess of Leeds, Marchioness of Wexley and Baroness Stafford. The most beautiful of "the three graces," as they were popularly called, however, first married Sir John Harvey and only became Duchess of Leeds in 1857. She died in 1874. These ladies may be said to have been the pioneers of those fair daughters of Columbia who have selected titled mates in the "old countries."—London Chronicle.

Holigodons Soap.

What do the Holigodons do with their heads? Some are sent away to the Hamburg market, and the rest kept for home consumption. Roasting before a slow fire, with the trail on, over toast, is practically an unknown art, although a very easily practiced. Everything goes into the pot for soup. "Trosselsoop" is an institution much lauded. Mr. Gatte tells us how it should be prepared. Take care to commit some 40 or 50 thrushes, according to the requirements of the family, to the soup pot, and do not have the fattest birds drawn, and if the cook is a true artist, no one will fail to ask a second helping. A favorite Holigodons land dish is kittiwake pie. In November and December these gulls are very fat, and when prepared in Holigodons fashion are considered delicious, although a somewhat fishy one. The gray rook is also a very favorite dish.—Chambers's Journal.

Steel vs. Cast Iron.

Steel has superseded iron in all structural work where the greatest strength and durability are required. The old-fashioned cast-iron stove has made way for the

which is made of cold-rolled steel (the strongest steel) and malleable iron (iron that by an expensive process, is made unbreakable), and the whole construction is riveted by hand (the honest way).

THE SORT OF MAN BRYAN IS.

His Law Partner, Talbot, Likes Him, But Not His Politics.

He Says Bryan's Early Speeches Were Usually Prepared With Much Care.

His Early Struggles, Pet Ideas, Piety, and Marked Personal Characteristics.

Lincoln, Neb., July 14.—Wm. J. Bryan, law partner and most intimate personal friend is a man of about his own age. He is a stalwart Republican. A. R. Talbot is one of the prominent Republicans of the State. A month ago he was nominated for the State Senate. Nobody in Nebraska entertains a higher opinion of Bryan personally, than his partner, but he does not hesitate to condemn his associate's political views.

"Bryan is to be admired for everything except his politics, and I know he is honest in his politics," said Mr. Talbot, who chatted in an interesting manner about his partner.

"Will Bryan and I were classmates in the Union Law College in Chicago. We entered the college the same day, in 1881, and we left it together. We usually occupied adjoining seats, and during two years we were the closest of chums. I first met him the year before at Galesburg at an oratorical contest. He represented Illinois college in the contest, and took second prize. I don't remember his subject now, but he made a deep impression. Even then he had considerable reputation as a public speaker. He had, while attending college, stumped the State of Illinois for W. M. Springer, with whom Bryan was always on the most intimate and friendly terms, Congressman Springer, you know, got Bryan a place on the Ways and Means Committee."

"Will was known as a ready, witty talker, and he was much in demand. His utterances were always carefully prepared in advance, and were always polished and graceful. While we were attending the law college he delivered an address on Abraham Lincoln that was very generally commented on."

"Did you then regard him as cut out for a public man?"

"I did not. I knew he was a bright fellow, who would get on in the world, but I never thought of him as destined for a great career. As a matter of fact we were both poor boys, struggling to make our way, and neither one of us thought much of the future then. It kept us busy taking care of the present. We were both utterly without means and had to work our way through college. I worked in one law office and Will in another—Lyman Trumbull's by the way—$5 per week. We paid all of our expenses out of that. In those days we inched pretty regularly on a nickel's worth of pretzels and apples, but we dined heavily at night."

"What happened when you left the law college?"

"We were graduated in June, 1883. Will went to Jacksonville to engage in the practice of the law, and I came to Lincoln immediately. I didn't see him again until 1887, when he came west on some legal business. He stayed in Lincoln with me over Sunday. I was away part of the day and so did not see much of him, but before saying good-bye I suggested that he come out to Lincoln and go into partnership with me. I told him I would guarantee him a living, and that was about all he was getting at Jacksonville. I told him he was just the kind of man to come west and grow up with the country. He did not have very much to say, but shortly after he reached home he wrote me and wanted to know if I was in earnest when I made him the offer of a partnership. I replied that I was, and in a few weeks he came out again and remained here thirty days. At the end of that time he returned to Jacksonville, closed up his business there, and came back with his family, prepared to stay. Some time afterward he purchased a lot on D street for $500 or $600. His father-in-law, Mr. Baird, sent him the money to build his house, $2,700, I think. He settled down to the practice of law, but he devoted some attention to politics almost from the first, and within a year and a half of the time of his arrival in Lincoln he was nominated by the Democrats for Congress.

"All the time he was in law college Will gave a great deal of consideration and study to questions of government. He read up thoroughly on constitutional law, and he was early impressed with the idea that the people were being unjustly burdened by monopolies. He maintained even then that the menace of the country was the encroachment of wealth on the rights of the common people, but he thought there was serious trouble ahead for the country. He was a strong Democrat, and he came honestly by his Democracy, for his father, Silas Bryan, was one of the staunchest Democrats in Illinois. And, by the way, his father was a character. He was a politician, but at the same time he was known as a religious enthusiast. He was a great man to pray. He would pray at any time and in any place. You never could tell when Silas Bryan was going to break out in prayer. He served in the Legislature, and he invariably dropped to his knees and offered up a silent prayer before addressing the Chair, and often during the proceedings he would get down on his knees for a few moments of prayer. Then he was made a Circuit Judge, and he continued his praying. When he came into the court room he would pray, and often, while the attorneys were making arguments, he would slide down behind the bench and seek spiritual refreshment. Will Bryan is quite as religious as was his father, only he is less demonstrative. He and his wife have been active members of the First Presbyterian Church ever since they came to Lincoln. Will has never, to my knowledge, uttered a word of profanity, nor used tobacco or intoxicants in any form.

"Can recall, one debate in which he participated in his college days. The subject was the duty of a representative in the Legislature or Congress, whether he should be guided by his own views or by those of his constituents. He maintained that the representative ought to be careful to get on the right side and then educate his constituents up to his opinion. "Bryan is an upright, conscientious, Christian man. I have never known a finer character. I am positive he would win into politics with no selfish motives. He is thoroughly convinced that the country is best with conditions that call for the highest patriotism, the noblest endeavor, and he regards it his duty to help right what he says are the wrongs of the people. I could give you many instances of his disinterestedness."

"Two years ago a gentleman from New York sat in Bryan's private office there trying to get him to make a contract to deliver fifty lectures at a $100 lecture. Bryan was poor then, as he is poor now, and I urged him to accept the offer. But he would hardly listen to the man. He said he would not speak for money. He was not in politics for himself, but for the people, and he did not expect to make anything for himself. He said he would not take anything but his expenses. 'Why,' he remarked, 'it is necessary that those who can should give their lives to the work of emancipating the people. Somebody has got to do this, and I have made up my mind to enter into it heart and soul, but not for my own benefit.' He didn't sign the contract."

"When he was in Congress he had an offer of $10,000 a year to become the counsel of a large corporation, but he told the officers that he would not act as their attorney for the entire profits of the concern. He has been repeatedly urged to make his home in Democratic States, with the assurance that he would be elected to the United States Senate and keep there the rest of his life, but he said he preferred to remain in Lincoln, and he will continue to keep his residence in this city."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constant falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. Silver in New Jersey.

United States Senator Smith, of New Jersey, on being asked "is there any silver sentiment in New Jersey," said: "Yes, much more, than is generally supposed. The agricultural element of each party is attached to a considerable degree by the enthusiasm of the Western farmers for this idea. It will be no easy task to overcome this enthusiasm wherever there is a large agricultural element."

"Then you see no walkover for McKinley?"

"On the contrary, I am convinced that if the election was to be held next week, Bryan would win. People here in the east do not appreciate the hold the free silver idea has taken upon the masses of the entire West and South. They believe they are right in principle, and they will be impressed more and more as the campaign progresses by the personality of their candidate."

Beet Sugar Campaign.

Secretary Hamilton of the Oxnard factories at Chino, Cal., and Grand Island and Norfolk, Neb., writes: "The prospects at Chino are bright. We shall not have the heavy tonnage there that we would have had if the rainfall last winter had been as much as that country generally enjoys, but it looks now like about $80,000 tons of beets to operate at our Chino factory and we shall commence operations about July 25. In Nebraska the agricultural conditions for beets could hardly be better; they have had some hail around Grand Island but it will not injure beets, excepting to top them back a week or ten days. The fields are all clean, plants healthy and farmers taking a very great interest in their work. We shall probably commence work there about Sept. 15."

Catsup.

Two barrels of tomatoes will make 5 gallons of catsup after it is boiled down. Cook the tomatoes until soft, run through a sieve and boil briskly stirring to prevent burning. When it is boiled nearly half away spice it, using 1 cup sugar, 1 cup vinegar, 1 cup salt; the spice I put in to suit the taste—cayenne, cinnamon, and a light touch of cloves and allspice, as too much makes it dark and bitter. Many gallons have been made after this recipe and sold. It kept until all was used, without souring. I make a small quantity, dividing the salt, sugar, vinegar, and spicing to taste, but letting some cool in a small dish. It is much better to try, as it is always cool when used.—American Agriculturist.

The Populist National Convention
assembles at St. Louis to-morrow.

Ex-Gov. Boies has announced that he would not accept a nomination for Congress if he knew it would result in his election.

State officials have decided to try to collect a franchise tax from the Southern Pacific railway and if they fail will attempt to have its Kentucky charter repealed.

The single standard element of the State of New York, which ignore the action of the Chicago Convention, headed by a few of the kind who will turn only in the lead, will wait until after their State Convention before taking action.

Senator Teller has written Mr. Bryan a letter congratulating him on his nomination for President. Senator Teller pledges Mr. Bryan his support and gives assurance that the silver Republicans generally will be found voting for the Democratic nominee.

The inimitable and invincible Henry Watterson, a would be hero in politics, has cracked his whip from across the waters and demanded a revolt in Democratic ranks. The party which he thought was legion and would be obedient to his will, is composed of only a few disorganized boters, who are crying aloud and the responses are the echoes of their wild vociferations for a cause which has proven itself disastrous, ill-fated and calamitous to our country's cause.

Mr. Watterson will be without an organized following and his demand for another ticket will, in our opinion, go unheeded. Mr. Watterson is not in touch with his people and is ignorant of the real condition of affairs under our present monetary system.

The Philadelphia Times suggests to Mr. Bryan that he overlooked a scriptural allusion in his great speech at Chicago. An incident in the career of another brilliant young man who rose to the chief place in his nation, might be presently pertinent. It is recorded in the first book of Samuel, viz:

"David, therefore, departed thence and escaped to the cave of Adullam; and when his brethren and all his father's house heard of it, they went down thither to him.

"And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them."—Daily Capital.

The Times and the Capital both overlooked the fact that David soon afterwards became king, and that his country under him reached a height of prosperity never equaled before—Selah!"

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE.

MEN WHO KNOW BRYAN.

As Told to the New York World—

He Will Be Elected.

ABLE, HONEST, CONSCIENTIOUS.
Richmond, Va., July 13.—A good one. Bryan is able, honest and conscientious.

Geo. D. Wise, (Dem.)

"THE COUNTRY NEED NOT FEAR."
Hillsboro, Tex. July 13.—Bryan would make a safe President. While I would prefer a man of more experience, I think the country need not fear Bryan.

Joe Abbott (Dem.)

"AS PURE AS A WOMAN."
Staunton, Va., July 13.—I served two terms in Congress with Mr. Bryan. We were deskmates for two years, and I know him intimately. I believe him to be a man of loftiest patriotism and the highest ideals. I know him to be a man of superb intellect, and of a personal character as pure as a woman. I doubt not that he will make a great President.

H. St. Geo. Tucker, (Dem.)

A Democrat of the Old School.
Judge James Flanagan, of Winchester, in a private letter has written us, has some things to say about the Chicago platform and the nominees. We take the liberty to quote from him. The Judge has just returned to his home from a visit to Tennessee. He says: "I do not know the state of public sentiment here as to the Chicago platform and as to the nominees of the convention. Where I have been in Summer and Maury counties the rank and file of the Democratic party there, will ardently support the platform and the nominees; the politicians will follow suit. This is a people's ticket, and will, if the signs do not fail, be elected triumphantly."

Mr. Henry Watterson, who is staying at Geneva, Switzerland, has allowed himself to be interviewed by a New York Herald representative in which he says of the ticket nominated at Chicago:

"Personally, it is an exceptional ticket. Mr. Bryan is a most worthy and well-educated young man, with a talent for what passes for oratory. He is forthright, sincere, poor and honest. Mr. Sewall is a Democrat of long standing and credit."

In answer to a question for his opinion of the platform he said:

"Monstrous. It not only means national repudiation and spoliation, but is an open door to revolution. The leaders of this movement could come into power, those of them who have any sense of accountability, any conception of orderly government, would be quickly set aside by the wild elements behind. In this way civil war, as foreshadowed by the Chicago out break last year, could be precipitated upon the country."

When asked about a third ticket he expressed himself as strongly in favor of the talked of departure on the part of the gold Democrats.

Mr. Watterson is a long way from home to be so free in his expressions of opinion on political matters here. He has been away from this country and out of touch with its politics a sufficient length of time for his opinions and advice to lose much of their old time weight.

Another Expression.

Hon. J. W. Bookwalter, of Springfield Ohio, a leading Democrat and millionaire manufacturer on his return from a visit to the east, in an interview said, "Bryan will be elected without a doubt. His declaration that the convention would not allow a crown of thorns pressed down upon the brow of labor and not permit mankind to be crucified upon a golden cross organized the convention. It was the real sentiment of the people."

"The eastern papers sound gold only, but outside of the largest cities the silver people are as plenty as they are here and the gold men are as scarce."

Robert Loughlin was found guilty at Brookville of the murder of his wife and niece and his punishment was fixed at death.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN.

This is the new face of William Jennings Bryan, Democratic nominee for President. It will not be recognized very readily by those who knew him when he was not as famous as he is to-day. It is not the face he wore as a Congressman. It is not the face he wore as editor. It is the face that came to him when he stood up in the Coliseum and knew that the climax of his life was at hand. The old-time smile left; William Jennings Bryan forever when he began to make that speech. The soft lines of his kindly countenance were wiped out, and in their place came those that are there to-day—those that mean tragedy, seriousness and an entirely new life. Stern, unrelenting and almost fierce are the different expressions mingled in this new face. There is nothing left of the boy orator of the Platte. The man who has seen his fate has come and the new face suits him.

The famous man was just starting out to face the men and women over whom he wants to rule. He sat in the gallery, and this is the picture that was developed. Compare it with the old-time portraits of the nominee taken only a few weeks ago. Years have been added to the face, but they are not as time counts them. Rather, they are the years that are added to a man's life when he is faced by such a crisis as that which came to William Jennings Bryan in the Coliseum, when he fought a battle and won.

CRUSHING DEFEAT

Sustained by Spanish Troops

Commanded by General Juarez Inclan

The Leader Himself Said to Have Been Captured.

Key West, Fla.—The Spaniards under Gen. Juarez Inclan have sustained a crushing defeat at the hands of the insurgents under Antonio Maceo, according to advices received by the Cuban revolutionary leaders in this city. Not only was Inclan's column defeated with heavy loss, but the Cuban leaders are informed that it is currently reported in Havana that the Spanish General himself was captured and is now held as a prisoner by Maceo.

The battle is said to have occurred on July 15 near Maceo's strong hold in the province of Pinar del Rio. For the last two weeks the insurgents have been very aggressive and small parties have repeatedly attacked the Trocha, causing the Spaniards much annoyance. Gen. Inclan was ordered to drive back these detached bands of insurgents and for this purpose took with him 2,600 men.

Maceo seems to have expected such a movement and arranged to ambush the Spaniards. The Spaniards followed the insurgent skirmishers haphazardly and fell into the ambush. Then the insurgents opened fire from all sides, which threw the Spaniards into confusion. While the Spaniards were thus disordered the Cubans charged completely routing their foes. Gen. Inclan made a desperate effort to rally his demoralized forces, but was surrounded by the Cubans and compelled to surrender. It is reported in Havana, according to the revolutionists here, that the Spaniards were pursued almost to Trocha and lost more than 300 men killed and wounded.

There were fourteen officers among the killed. Cubans here also say Maceo will hold Inclan as hostage to save the lives of prominent insurgent officers who have been captured by the Spaniards.

One day last week workmen at Lux & Talbot's quarries found a number of live lizards imbedded in solid rock fifteen feet below the surface. Some of these were put in bottles and lived several hours. They were about three inches long, copper colored and had no eyes.—Logansport, Indiana, Daily Reporter.

Olympics vs. Mt. Sterling.

The "Olympics," a well trained ball team from Louisville, played the home team here last Friday and were defeated by the score of 8 to 3. Both clubs played a pretty game.

Not being satisfied with their defeat, they arranged with Manager Iola to play two games here this week. The first game will take place this afternoon at Ball Park, and second game Wednesday afternoon.

Those who attend will be highly entertained, as these two clubs are evenly matched and are capable of furnishing for their audiences a professional-like contest.

The home team will dot the diamond as follows: Panch, p.; Apperson, c.; Leveone, 1 b.; Rowell, 2 b.; Beckner, 3 b.; Trumbo, s. c.; Davis, r. f.; Cornillion, c. f.; Nugent, l. f.

Wants It Pure.

Judge J. S. Phelps has been in the habit every afternoon of coming by our office with a copy of the Courier Journal in his hand, taking it to his home in the country. He came by a few evenings ago, but minus his favorite newspaper, in the stead of which he had a copy of the Louisville Commercial. Remarkable the change.

We asked the reason. He replied, "that he preferred to take his pure. That as he had to take republicanism he would take it straight and not diluted as the C. J. gives it."—Lexington Gazette.

Excursion to Niagara Falls.

On Wednesday, July 23, the Big Four Route will run a popular excursion to Niagara Falls and return with the trip to Toronto. The rate for the round trip from Cincinnati will be $10 from Dayton $9; Springfield, $8.50; Columbus, $8; corresponding rates from intermediate stations. The rate to Toronto is only $1 more than rate to Niagara Falls.

The Big Four excursion to Niagara Falls and Toronto, on July 22nd, will be of the usual excellent quality which this line has given its patrons in former years.

Senator Vilas and Gen. Bragg have separately prepared addresses to the Democrats of Wisconsin, urging them to repudiate the Chicago ticket.

The Hon. W. S. Holman, of Aurora, Ind., was nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Fourth district, at North Vernon, on the seventh ballot.

Court Day Report.

There was about 400 cattle on the market. No good cattle for sale; the bulk of the offerings were cows and heifers. Over 1,000 sheep were brought to the county, but more than half of them were sold last Saturday. Trade was good at the prices, but cattle sold low. Sheep were brisk and sold readily. Cattle sold at from 1 1/2c for heifers to 3 cts. for 800-pound steers. Sheep brought from $2.25 to $2.40 per hundred.

The following stockmen were at the Mt. Sterling stockyards: J. M. Rose, O. H. Downing, Allen & Trimble, A. P. Clark, Floyd Horton Roe Chase, L. C. Hayze, and Salyers & Co.

SALES.

J. M. Oldham, of Madison County, bought of J. M. Rose some 450-pound heifers at 2 cts.

L. C. Hayze sold two 850-pound cows to D. S. C. Sayre, of Lexington, at 2 cts.

Floyd Horton sold to C. J. Daniel, of Bourbon county, eight 450-pound heifers at 2 1/2 cts.

W. M. Jones, of Bourbon county, bought a lot of 600-pound steers of M. B. Lyons at 2 1/2 cts.

Lyons & Sample sold a lot of 500-pound heifers to John Todd, of Clark county, at 2 cts.

J. M. Rose sold eight 750-pound cows to F. Kears, of Moorefield, at 1 1/2 cts.

Lyons & Sample sold six 500-pound heifers to C. J. Daniel, of Bourbon county, at 2 1/2 cts.

Moss Bros. bought eight 600-pound heifers of Johnson & Rice at 2 1/2 cts.

T. M. Oldham, of Madison county, bought fifteen 500-pound steers at an average of 2 cts.

J. M. Rose sold about 35 steers and heifers at from 1 1/2 to 3 cts.

J. H. Bryan, of North Middletown, bought sixteen 600-pound steers at from 2 1/2 to 3 cts.

SHEEP.

Sheep were in demand and sold quickly.

Cass Goff bought 450 sheep for James Clay, of Bourbon county, at 2 1/2 cts.

Salyers & Co. sold 264 sheep to Capt. Gillespie at $2.40.

Boye & Allen sold Sam Stone, of Bath county, 160 sheep at $2.25. The same party sold to Jno. Crouch 50 sheep at $2.40, and to J. M. Talbott 70 sheep at $2.25.

Trade seemed to be better than last court-day.

HORSES AND MULES.

It was the dulllest day in the horse and mule market that we have seen in a long time. There was really nothing done at all. Only one horse buyer (Mr. Davis) on the market and he did not buy any stock.

Mr. Joel Feeler, of this place, in correspondence with some English gentlemen in regard to some saddle horses. If Mr. Feeler makes the deal he will likely make the trip with the stock.

Why

Do people buy Hood's Sarsaparilla in preference to any other, in fact almost to the exclusion of all others?

Because

They know from actual use that Hood's is the best, i. e., it cures when others fail. Hood's Sarsaparilla is still made under the personal supervision of the educated pharmacist who originated it. The question of best is just as positively decided in favor of Hood's as the question of comparative sales.

Another thing: Every advertisement of Hood's Sarsaparilla is true, is honest.

A New Daily Paper.

Not later than August 15th, a new Democratic paper in accord with the platform adopted at Chicago will be started in Louisville. It will be under the management of Daniel E. O'Sullivan, editor of the "Critic." Mr. O'Sullivan is a bold, fearless writer and is in line with the convictions of the people. Persons desiring stock in such an enterprise should communicate with Mr. O'Sullivan. In an advance card he says:

"It has been contemplated for some time to establish a straight-out Democratic paper in Louisville that will advocate the free coinage of silver at a ratio sixteen to one and that will support Democratic nominees in National and State contests. I am now making arrangements to establish a morning daily here, to be called the Louisville Democrat. The publication will be made as early as possible and will not be later than August 15th."

It will be a two-cent paper and will have a weekly edition, the subscription price of which will be $1.00 per year.

Excursion to Old Point Comfort.

On Tuesday August 11th, the Chesapeake and Old Point Railway Company will run its annual excursion to Old Point Comfort, Va. The excursion will leave Lexington, Ky., at 4.30 P. M. on a special vestibuled train, and arrives at Old Point at 3 P. M. next afternoon. No other excursion affords as much pleasure and enjoyment as a trip to Old Point. The Hygeia Hotel, and its up-to-date management and appointments, as a stopping place; its table second to none on the Atlantic coast; the invigorating sea-breezes, a plunge in the surf, the magnificent fishing and sailing make Old Point a most desirable place to go.

The ride from Lexington is an enjoyable feature. After a comfortable night on the cars, breakfast is taken at Clifton Forge in the crest of the Alleghany mountain valley, past Richmond and Williamsburg, reaching Old Point in time for an afternoon surf bath. All of these pleasures for only $12.00. Round trip tickets good until August 31st, 1896. Write for any information desired.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

(From Lexington Gazette.)

Stock hogs are in demand at an advance from three to 3 1/2 cents.

Monday next is County Court day in Georgetown, Nicholasville and Danville.

James Clark and Thomas Muir, have sold their fat cattle to Welch Bros. at 4 cents.

A good many fat cattle have been contracted for in this and adjoining counties for export at 4 cents.

Vegetation of all kinds is making a wonderful growth, the earth being thoroughly saturated for the first time in several years.

Vegetables are really too cheap to pay the expense of gathering and bringing to market. Irish potatoes at 25 cents a bushel.

We are credibly informed that several sales of new corn were made last Monday at 75 cents per barrel, and new oats at 15 cents per bushel, old corn has declined from $1.50 to $1.25 per barrel.

The hemp farmers say that the prices for cutting hemp this year can not exceed two dollars per acre. At this price laborers can earn nearly twice the wages as compared with any other farm work they can get at the time of year.

Lambs are higher than they have been for a year or two—cattle have advanced to 4 cents stock hogs have gone up from 3 to 3 1/2 cts., and a better feeling prevails in almost all other articles of produce.

The number of acres of hemp growing as compared with an average year, is 82 per cent. The average condition is 80 per cent. The highest average condition reported is from Bourbon county, 100, while Mercer furnishes the lowest average 3.

The continual wet weather has almost totally ruined the wheat that is yet in the shock, a very small percent of the crop, though, remained to be threshed. The early Barre oats have been threshed or stacked. The latter variety is being harvested now.

The farrowing season is clamoring for a reduction of rate. A large number of them say they will not farm at all next year except on the share system. They claim and with apparent good reason that the landlord should share equally the risk with the good tenant, especially now while the prices are so low on all farm products.

It is about settled that we will have no regular week of fair this year, this will not prevent the citizens of the city and the farmers combining and having another of those "World's Fairs," of say two days in some of the woodlands convenient, and sometime in September when we get the benefit of early autumn weather. Have it similar in all respects to that held near Payne's Depot for several years and which was so enjoyable.

The Coming of Baby.

When a baby comes to the house real happiness comes. The care and anxiety count for nothing against the glowing touch of the little hand and the sound of the little voice. The highest function given to human beings is bringing healthy, happy children into the world. Over thirty years ago the needs of women appealed to Dr. Pierce, now chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. The result of his study improved by thirty years of practice is embodied in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives weak women the strength and health necessary for the production of healthy children and it makes the nursing of those children easy. It is sure to cure any weakness or derangement peculiar to women; stops pain, soothes inflammation, strengthens, purifies, invigorates.

Read Dr. E. P. Bender's advertisement on 2nd page.

The Kentucky School Fund per capita for the present year has been fixed at $2.20.

The announcement is made that Mr. Dan J. Prewitt and Miss Alice Burton, two of our popular young people, will be married in the early part of September. Our informant says: "Full particulars later."

Assa Dean shipped a hoghead of trash tobacco to S. P. Carr & Co., Richmond, Va., and received for it eight cents per pound. Farmers who have tobacco on hand would do well to correspond with Messrs Carr & Co.

Mary, the twelve year old daughter of J. J. Peed and wife, of Millersburg, died of gastric fever on Sunday. She was a niece of Mr. L. F. Tabb and Mrs. F. W. Bassett. Mr. and Mrs. Tabb and Mrs. Bassett attended the funeral.

William Turner, aged 27, died at the home of his father George Turner at Antioch church Sunday. For a year past the young man had been a sufferer from a bronchial affection. His funeral was preached yesterday by Elder H. D. Clark.

We have not heard of a single complaint of Dr. Bender's work, but on the contrary have heard a number say he is indeed a painless dentist. What he uses is his own secret, but it is all right. At the Commercial Hotel Monday, July 20th, remaining until Saturday, July 25th.

Mary Katharine, infant daughter of Abner Odham and wife, aged five months, died on Sunday evening from cholera infantum. Funeral was preached Monday afternoon at the residence by Elder H. D. Clark and the remains were taken to Richmond, Ky., where she will be buried to-day. The little one, though short lived, was a blessing to her dear parents. In her they had bright hopes. They saw what she would be to them on earth, but this was not God's will. He took the little spirit that it might become a beacon by which the lives of others might be directed from earth heaven. We often wonder why the good Master gives us these sweet spirits to us on a sun and we have of love and then craves fond hopes by the hand of death, but His ways are past finding out and to His will we meekly bow awaiting the day of revelation knowing all things are well and are for the good of His children.

Are You Tired

All the time? This condition is a sure indication that your blood is not rich and nourishing as it ought to be and as it may be if you will take a few bottles of the great blood purifier, Hood's Serravallo's Tonic. Rheumatic and Neuralgic cured by Dr. Miller's Pain Pills. "One cost a dose."

HORSE AND TRACK.

Azote 2:04 1/2 is turned out at Freeport, and Directly 2:07 1/2 is lame.

It is said that Palo Alto Farm refused $50,000 for the three-year-old colt, Adbell, recently.

Kentucky Union's 2:09 1/2 is the trotting record of the year. The mare is now seven years old.

Jas. Magowan's bay mare, Russic Clay, won third money at Joliet, Ill., Time, 2:11, 2:12, 2:14, 2:15.

Robert J. won free-for-all pace at Elkhart, Ind., in 2:05, 2:05. Badge second, Frank Agau third, John R. Gentry fourth.

The Rev. T. C. Staehle, Lexington, Ky., who bred Rex American 2:11 1/2, was also the breeder of this year's sensation, Baron Crisp 2:12 1/2.

Oratorio, who showed a mile in 2:13 for Major McDowell about three weeks ago, will not be campaigned this season, but will be saved for next year's stakes.

Lord Clinton "didn't do a thing" to Klamath and Fantasy at Elkhart. The old black war horse has corns and jogs decidedly lame, but he is still a great trotter.

John R. Gentry, some critics aver, has "soured on the game." He is all right in his work, but when he turns for the word in a race he seems to lose both his head and his speed.

Badge can score like a runaway horse. He can also go the route and come home like a sky-rocket, and a good many experts are looking for him to beat 2:05 before so very long.

Joe Patchen went his exhibition at Joliet last week in 2:04 1/2, very easily—easier than Robert J. went his heat in 2:05 at Elkhart. It is to be said, however, that he had a faster track to speed over.

Badge 2:07 1/2, won first money in each of the free-for-all pacing events at Omaha, Lincoln, Red Oak and Chicago. As the stakes were $1,000 each this son of Silas Wright can be campaigned "on velvet" for quite a while.

Snale S. 2:15 1/2, by Hyias, died at Baden, Germany, July 5. She was the property of M. de Beaumont of Paris and her death is said to have been due to the hard race she recently trotted at Vienna, losing it to Austria after seven heats, of which she won two.

At Sharpsburg Fair this week Montgomery will be represented by large attendance. John W. White starts Bob Pepper by Onward in 2:29 pace. F. P. Bean starts Alfred by Almont Wilkes in same race. W. T. Fitzpatrick starts his grey mare by Ambush in 3:00 minute trot and the 2:29 trot. These are all good horses and ought to win some of the money offered.

Mr. Marion Bedell Parker, of New York, will be married to Miss Sammie Gaines, of Georgetown, date the 25th instant. Miss Gaines is a favorite with many of our young people.

We have just received FIFTY more of those OLD KENTUCKY TOW-LINEN SUITS. They are the coolest things in the market for warm weather wear. The ladies are now using the Tow-linen for dresses and waists, which ought to vouch for their stylish qualities. Call and see them. The price is low.

They are the home-spun—not the machine-knit—and owing to the scarcity of the cloth, this is positively the last lot we will have this season.

Money Made in a Minute.

I have not made less than sixteen dollars while selling Centrifugal Ice Cream Freezers. Any one should make from five to eight dollars a day selling cream, and from seven to ten dollars selling freezer, as it is such a wonder, there is always a crowd waiting cream. You can freeze cream elegantly in one minute and that amazes people so they all want to taste it and then many of them buy freezers as the cream is smooth and perfectly frozen. Every freezer is guaranteed to freeze cream perfectly in one minute. Any one can sell the cream and the freezer sell itself. My sister makes from ten to fifteen dollars a day. J. F. Did You Ever Make Money Easy.

Mr. Editor—I have read how Mr. C. E. B. made so much money in the Dish Washer business and think I have beat him. I am very young yet and have had little experience in selling good, but have made over eight hundred dollars in ten weeks selling Dish Washers. It is simply wonderful how easy it is to sell them. All you have to do is to show the ladies how they work and they cannot help but buy one. For the benefit of others I will state that I got my start from the Mount City Dish Washer Co., St. Louis, Mo. Write to them and they will send you full particulars.

I think I can clear over $3,000 the coming year, and I am not going to let the opportunity pass. Try it and publish your success for the benefit of others.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Callonette, Druggist, Beavercreek, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with a gripe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at W. S. Lloyd's drug-store.

FOR AN OLD CRIME.

A Preacher and erstwhile Bad Man Arrested.

Hindman, Ky., July 16.—Rev. Washington Craft is under arrest here charged with complicity in the murder of Luville Hagins twelve years ago. Since Hagins was killed Craft has been roaming about E. Kentucky and recently he has been preaching in Clay county, having joined the Baptist church. The indictment under which the arrest is made is eleven years old.

Craft at the time Hagins was murdered lived in Letcher county, and with three other men came to Hagins' place of business, in Hindman, and called for a drink. They became boisterous and Hagins asked them to stop their noise, when they pulled their pistols and began shooting the glasses off the counter. Hagins became frightened and jumped out through a window. They followed him and shot him to death, his body being pierced by bullets in eleven places. Craft was arrested, but the other men escaped and he would never tell who they were. There was an indictment against Craft at the time for the murder of his uncle, and one for another murder, and he was also charged with breaking into the County Clerk's office at Whitesburg and stealing indictments against his friends.

with Craft to Whitesburg. A posse was with him, and when on Rock House creek some men they met were identified as men for whom rewards had been offered. The posse started in pursuit of the outlaws and Cook was following with Craft behind him on horseback. In some way Craft managed to get Cook's pistol away from him and shot the officer dead, took his horse and galloped off in the opposite direction, leaving Cook's body lying in the road.

Craft was a member of J. W. Wright's gang of notorious outlaws, and his arrest recalls the Wright-Jones-Draughan feud, in which twenty men died with their boots on in Knott and Letcher counties. Craft is said to have boasted over killing one-half the men who fell during that noted mountain war, and even since he has been preaching is said to have referred to his record with much pride. He is an athletic man of about thirty-eight. He has a family in Clay county and it is said he left a young wife in Letcher after he murdered his uncle.

Spoons Free to All.

I read in the Christian Standard that Miss A. M. Fritz, Station A, St. Louis, Mo., would give an elegant plated brook spoon to any one sending her ten two-cent stamps. I sent for and found it so useful that I showed it to my friends, and made $13 in two hours, taking orders for the spoon. The brook spoon is a household necessity. It cannot slip into the dish or cooking vessel, being held in place by a hook on the back. The spoon is something housekeepers have needed ever since spoons were first invented. Any one can get a sample spoon by sending ten 2-cent stamps to Miss Fritz. This is a splendid way to make money around home.
